No use to state her age, for everybody knows that she is living in the forgotten past to have remembered when women did what she says—that is, did it without kicking and almost going on a strike.

AS TO SUPPLEMENTS.

"Funny Sheet" May Have to Go With Postoffice Ruling.

The new ruling by the third assistant postmaster general with reference to the use of supplements by the newspapers of the United States goes into effect on Sept. 1st, and the effect of the order will be watched with interest all over the country. The law is to the effect that after the date mentioned all supplements issued in connection with any newspaper and available as second-class mail matter, must be germane to the publication which it supplements and that the supplement must contain matter supplied in order to complete that to which it is added or supplemented, but omitted from the regular edition for want of space, time or for greater convenience.

Postmasters at all important points have received special instructions from the department relative to the ruling and the matter is being much discussed in official circles. The colored supplements issued by many of the metropolitan papers will doubtless have to be "cut out," revised to meet the new conditions or sent by express in time to reach news dealers simultaneously with the regular edition of the paper. The colored supplements, extra sheets of music and the like are regarded by many as an abomination, but they are eargerly sought by the little folks and incidentally bring large sales to news dealers using them, so that the outcome of the ruling will be watched with general interest.

BUILDING INSPECTOR

Aldermen at Next Meeting to Consider New Law to Prevent Fire Waste

STRINGENT REGULATIONS

Act of Last Legislature Important to Builders and Property Owners in Towns and Cities—As to Electric Wiring, Etc.

An important matter which will engage the attention of the Board of Aldermen at its regular monthly meeting for September, which will be held next week, will be what is known as the "Fire Waste Law" passed by the last Legislature, providing for the appointment of a building inspector, whose duties as named in the act are manifold. The act has caused much discussion in other towns and cities of the State upon its going into effect July 1st last, but until now the existence of such a law had not come to the attention of the local authorities.

The new act is Chapter 506 of the Public Laws of 1905, which is amendatory to Chapter 677 of the Public Laws of 1901. The act adds to the original law thirty-odd sections providing an intricate system of building inspection and laying down rules and regulations which will be of interest to every builder and property owner. The act only applies to towns of 1,000 and over and such of those which have not asked exemption from the operation of the law before July 1st, of which Wilmington is one. All cities or towns, which have not one, are required to appoint a chief of fire department and suitably remunerate him for his services. By the same act such chiefs of fire department are constituted building inspectors and their duties are prescribed. In cases of larger cities or towns provision is made for the appointment and remuneration of a local inspector exclusive of the chief of fire department, who will be relieved of the duties set forth for such inspector.

The governing board of all incorporated towns and cities are required to pass ordinances establishing and defining fire limits, which shall include the principal business portion of the town or city, and any governing body failing or refusing to establish such fire limits is adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to prosecution. Within the fire limits so prescribed no frame or wooden buildings shall hereafter be erected. A minimum thickness of walls of all brick buildings, according to height is prescribed and penalties fixed for violation; also regulations as to roofs, foundations, doorways through party walls, stand pipes, joints, beams and timbers, fire places and chimneys, flues, stoves, ranges, steam pipes, foundries and all other matters of the kind, all of which must be looked after by the inspector ,who is given power to post notice of dangerous or unsafe walls or cause their removal altogether. A forfeit of from $10 to $50 for each day an unsafe wall or building is kept standing, after due notice, is prescribed, the law in this respect being very stringent.

There is also provision for the appointment of an inspector of electric wiring, which in all cases must conform to the rules and regulations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters. It is unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to run electric current over any wires in a building not first passed upon and a certificate granted by the electric inspector. The fee is $1 for each building inspected to be paid for by the person applying for the inspection.

The building inspector will issue permits for all buildings and his fees, before issuing certificates, are prescribed as $2 for each mercantile store-room, livery stable or manufacturing establishment of one-story and 50 cents for each additional story and for other buildings 25 cents per room; provided the inspection fee shall in no case exceed $5. Ample provision for quarterly and annual inspections and a complete record of everything is set out in the act. Reports are to be made to the State Insurance Commissioner in Raleigh on blanks to be furnished by him.

The powers of towns and cities in their regulations to prevent fire waste are not abridged. Deputy inspectors may be appointed when necessary. It will be seen that the act is a very important one and the Aldermen are likely to devote considerable time to it and the appointment of the inspectors thereunder. Many provisions of the new law are objected to by builders and property owners, but since Wilmington did not advantage itself of exemption before July 1st., the law is now in full force and effect and the authorities are guilty of a misdemeanor if they fail to carry out the provisions of the act.

Deputy Clerk of Court.

Ex-Mayor W. N. Harriss, has resigned his position with Mr. S. W. Sanders, the grocer, effective October 1st, and will on that day accept the appointment of deputy clerk of the Superior Court in the office of Col. Jno. D. Taylor at the court house. Mr. Chas. C. Loughlin, who holds the position at present, resigned to take up his studies again at the University two weeks hence.

JR. O. A. M. ORPHANS' HOME

Patriotic Order Moving to Establish Institution in This State—Meeting Here To-Morrow Night

The Junior Order of United American Mechanics in the State have set themselves to the laudable undertaking of establishing at some convenient point in North Carolina a Jr. O. U. A. M. Orphans' Home, fashioned after those maintained by the Odd Fellows at Goldsboro and the Masonic fraternity at Oxford.

At the last meting of the State Council in Goldsboro, the undertaking was discussed with much enthusiasm and to the end that the establishment of such a home might assume tangible shape a committee was appointed to have the matter in charge, and to make definite report at the next meeting of the State Council in February, 1906. The committee is composed of William J. Bellamy, Esq., of Wilmington, chairman; Prof. Chas. E. Brewer, of Wake Forest College; E. L. Edmundson, of Goldsboro; W. D. Gaster, of Fayetteville, and former Lieutenant Governor J. F. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem. It is proposed to establish the home by voluntary subscriptions from the various councils all over the State and already something has been done in that direction.

Jeff Davis Council, No. 63, of Wilmington, will hold a rally to-morrow night for the purpose of taking some action with reference to the matter and it is expected that other councils all over the State will fall in line in the very near future. The meeting to-morrow night wil be addressed by State Chairman Bellamy, who will later visit other councils in the State to lend encouragement to the movement.

Winston-Salem, Goldsboro and several other places have offered sites for the establishment of the home but nothing will be done as to location until all the offers are in and the situation is canvassed thoroughly.

ORCHESTRA FOR LUMINA.

Organization of Musicians Coming From Jackson Springs, N. C.

The Consolidated Company has decided not only to make Lumina "a joy forever" in the Summer time, but to invest it with such attractions as will make it an attractive place also in the Winter. It has now been virtually decided to enclose the pavilion with glass and to install a heating plant, guaranteeing comfort to all who visit the resort.

The first step toward providing the place with Winter attractions was taken yesterday with the engagement of a new orchestra for the entire month of September and longer, if satisfactory. The new orchestra has been playing the past season at Jackson Springs Hotel and is said to be composed of musicians of a very high order. The leader, Prof. Christiani, as well as the other members of the organization, are from Washington, D. C., and are well known in musical circles. Prof. Christiani has played in several bands for the Unijed States Government and Prof. Joyce, the cornetist of the orchestra, for a number of years played in the United States Marine Band. The orchestra will consist of violin, piano, cornet and clarinet. The orchestra will play for dancing every week-day night as well as for concerts on Sunday.

Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Probably one of the most enthusiastic meetings of the Fraternal Order of Eagles that has yet been held in this city, took place last night at which time Carolina Aerie initiated five candidates who are now full fledged Eagles. Several matters of importance were discussed among them the permanent location of the Aerie in the future. This came about on the report of the Permanent Hall Committee which unanimously decided that the Shrier building on Front street be leased for a term of years and will very shortly be occupied and thoroughly furnished in an up-to-date manner with modern lodge and club room furniture. The local Aerie is composed mostly of young men and possesses all the enthusiasm that the very name of youth carries with it.

NEW BANK FORMED

Application Yesterday for Charter for Carolina Savings and Trust Company

WITH CAPITAL OF $25,000

Probably Begin Business on Saturday of This Week in Atlantic National Building—Incorporator Well Known Men.

Application was forwarded yesterday to the Secretary of State at Raleigh for a charter for the Carolina Savings and Trust Company of Wilmington. The capital stock is $25,000, fully paid in, and the incorporators named in the application are Messrs. John S. Armstrong, George R. French, R. R. Bellamy, I Shrier, D. McEachern C. W. Yates and James F. Post, all leading business men and capitalists of this city, and a majority of them identified with the Atlantic National Bank, under the auspices of which the new organization has been formed. The new bank expects to begin business Saturday of this week in temporary quarters in the splendid Atlantic National Bnk building at northwest corner of Front and Princess streets.

The books of subscription to the capital stock of the new institution are now open and a limited amount of it will be placed with Wilmington people, who will give their support and use the stock as an investment rather than as a speculative proposition. The shares have been placed at $25 each and Mr. John S. Armstrong, who, it is understood, will be president of the new bank, said yesterday that already there have been applications for more than twenty times the amount of stock proposed to be issued. It is proposed, however, to place the stock generally among people who will manifest an interest in the institution and work for its material upbuilding. The bank will be managed along economical lines, affording a splendid permanent investment to stockholders and ensuring safety and convenience to depositors. Interest at the rate of four per cent, compounded quarterly, will be paid and the same rules and regulations will obtain as to deposits as are now in vogue with the three other savings banks in the city.

It is expected that notice of the granting of the charter to the new bank will be received by telegraph to-day and that immediately upon receipt of the information, an organization of the Carolina Savings and Trust Company will be effected. The new institution will be launched by men of experience in the formation of savings banks as Atlantic National Bank people were largely instrumental in organizing two of the three other banks of the kind now in the city.

The home of the new bank will be the large office in the Atlantic National Bank building adjoining those of the cashier on the south and of the president on the north. An entrance will be made by cutting a door opening on Front street, pains being taken not to destroy the architectural beauty of the building by the entrance. In due time handsome fixtures, comparing very favorably with any furnishings of their kind in the South, will be installed and every facility will be provided for conducting a large and successful business.

The Carolina Savings and Trust Company will make the fourth savings bank in the city, all of which are doing a splendid business. There are in addition three national banks of large capital, which places Wilmington in the very front rank as a banking centre of the State.

HAMMOND MUST HANG.

Wife Murderer Will Swing September 2nd in Forsyth.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 29.—After a long consideration of the case of J. W. Hammond, of Forsyth county, sentenced to death for murdering his wife, Governor Glenn declines to commute the sentence and Hammond will swing Sept. 2nd. The governor finds complete premeditation. Hammond treated his wife cruelly and threatened her when she refused to return to him after having left him. He went after her and upon her refusal to return, shot at her. She had her child in her arms and it fell, and cried. She stooped to take it and he shot her. He said as she lay on the ground that he had done exactly what he intended to do and was not sorry. The governor had respited Hammond from July 20th to 2nd September.

Governor Glenn declines to commute the death sentence of Ashley Moore, a negro convicted in Sampson county of outraging a negro girl, aged eleven. He gave Ex-Congressman Fowler, a hearing this afternoon in behalf of Moore. September 2nd is the date of the execution.

Insurance Commissioner Young cancels the license of the Order of Select Knights, of Buffalo, N. Y. It had $534 on deposit with the State Treasurer and made two claims, a total of a thousand dollars. To-day he paid $534 to these claimants. The Order is defunct. Claimants in other States have not received over 25 per cent.

The Corporation Commission calls for statement from all State private and savings banks at close of business August 25th.

Dr. Pigford's Condition.

The many friends of Dr. E. S. Pigford will be glad to know that his condition was considerably improved yesterday. He has regained consciousness and talked very pleasantly with several friends who called to see him at the hospital yesterday afternoon.

POLITICS AND WHISKEY.

The Hon. M. F. Ansel, of Greenville, S. C., is a candidate for governor in next year's campaign. He favors the dispensary solution of the liquor problem but as State control does not seem to "solute," he would substitute independent county dispensaries that would not be subject to State control. This would appear to be shifting an infamy from the State to the weaker counties. To a man up a tree it would appear from South Carolina's experience that whiskey and politics won't mix any better in a county than it will in a State.

However the independent county dispensary may be the lesser evil of the two. The Charleston News and Courier evidently thinks so. Our esteemed contemporary says:

"Mr. Ansel's advocacy of destroying the State dispensary feature of the system is entirely to be commended. The existence of a wholesale house to sell liquors to the sub-dispensaries is in no way essential to the regulative and restrictive functions of the law. Whatever is good in the law is found in such inhibitions as those against sales at night and sales in other than original packages, the inhibition against drinking on the premises being a corrolary to the latter. The troubles in the administration of the system may for the most part be traced to the central State concern and its management. Mr. Ansel has done well to cut loose from it, and it is singular that others who have sincere faith in the dispensary as a reform measure have not long since freed themselves from this needless handicap. Of course, the value of a State dispensary to one desirous of using it as an accessory to a State political machine is obvious."

The dispensary is an issue in the next State campaign in South Carolina. The issue will be whether the State shall go out of the liquor business or continue it under some change in the methods. Of course there will be some substitute, if it is decided to get rid of the State dispensary, and our South Carolina friends are getting all the information they can to get ready for the fight. The resourcefulness of the South Carolinians is such that they will be ready to go into the campaign with well defined propositions, pro and con, for a solution of the liquor problem. In search of information, the Charleston News and Courier has procured from Mr. Maxwell Gorman, of Raleigh, a lengthy account of North Cardlina's way of handling the liquor question. Concerning what he writes, the News and Courier says editorially:

"Again to the end of illuminating as far as possible 'the solution of the whiskey question,' we present to-day a review of conditions in North Carolina, where, as in Georgia, independent county dispensaries, high licensed bar rooms and prohibition are all to be found.

"Four-fifths of the State has prohibition and the law appears to be enforced except in the larger towns. Even in those, if the law officers are zealous and attentive, prohibition does prohibit. This seems to be the case in Charlotte. In other large towns it does not appear that the sales of whiskey are rigorously suppressed, though it is not disputed that the villages and the country districts are in law and fact "dry."

"The city of Raleigh is receiving profits of about $100,000 annually. Raleigh has a population of 13,643, according to the census of 1900. This is a far better showing than has been presented by any South Carolina city. It is not surprising that the revenue argument is making itself felt not only in Raleigh, but in neighboring cities. The danger is actual that the dispensary as a revenue yielder will in time be as hard to shake off as were lotteries some years ago.

"The description of conditions in North Carolina is instructive and interesting and well worth the attention of persons who wish to cast intelligent ballots free from partisan bias when the liquor question is to be voted upon."

FREER TRADE UNDER DIFFERENT NAMES.

The Springfield, Mass., Republican (Independent) says:

"Protectionists of the extreme type will grin triumphantly when they note the suggested change of 'dual tariff' for reciprocity. We shall hear them saying that they drove 'free trade' to take refuge under 'tariff reform,' and tariff reform under 'reciprocity,' and now reciprocity under 'dual tariff'—that they still have the free traders, however, masked, on the dead run. Well, it might look as through they had scored a point here in demonstration of their own terrifying power. But it is the substance of freer trade which really concerns them, and a dual tariff can be made to cover as much of this sort of thing as reciprocity."

Tariff reform is generally the slogan of the Democratic party and it was supposed to have won when Cleveland was elected President for his second term. At any rate the election was carried on the tariff reform pledge of the party, although the knife was not put as deep into the high duties as Mr. Cleveland desired. Reciprocity was the sop thrown out to catch wavering Republicans who believed tariff reform was a necessity and otherwise would have voted with the Democracy to secure it. The Republican tariff reformers asked for bread and under the promise of it, the Republican administration provided them a still higher tariff and finally gave them a "stand pat" stone. Of course the tariff reform slogan of the Democrats and "reciprocity" on the part of some Republicans meant a desire for "freer trade."

The recent reciprocity conference at Chicago adopted the dual tariff idea, that is a maximum tariff with nations that do not favor us and a minimum tariff with those that do. It is simply reciprocity under another name and probably by a little different method. There is no concealment of the fact that it is for freer trade. On the face of it that is what its significance is. There is no concealment about it; there should be no concealment about it, and we have always noticed that when the Democratic party stood for a lower tariff it got more votes than it did when it went after other issues that were not half as vital to the people and the government itself as would be a more liberal trade policy with other nations.

The Republican stand patters have squezed the tariff up and up till it has destroyed to a certain extent the mutual trade which we would have with other nations. It has shut off imports, and that means that the revenues have been cut off in the same proportion, resulting in a treasury deficit.

Of course we cannot tell how far reaching is the new dual tariff movement of the reciprocity conference but we are prepared to believe the Republican party will adopt it as it did reciprocity if it cannot carry an election otherwise. However, time and experience have shown that if they want a reasonable tariff they will never get it out of the Republican party. The tariff reformers, reciprocityites and dual tariffites are butting their heads against a stonewall in any endeavor to get what they want through the Republican party.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—In censuring the negroes for "industriously seeking something easy," Booker Washington takes a shot which makes many a white man dodge.—Washington Post.

—John Hoch is said to be hopeful; but it is hard to believe that a man who survived the matrimonial experiences of Mr. Hoch was not born to be hanged.—Charleston News and Courier.

—Among remarkable recent inventions are the pneumoslito, the topodict, the telemeter, the telephone-ears and the thermophile. The pneumoslio is an automobile especially designed for use on ice, but which can just as easily be used on land. It is moved by a propeller wheel run by a 2 3-4 horsepower electric motor, the propeller turning in the air and moving the carriage at a speed of twenty miles an hour. The topodict is a combination of a pantograph and telescope, by means of which any person can make a drawing in correct perspective of any scene before him, even if he knows nothing whatever of drawing. By means of the telemeter the exact distance of far-away objects can be measured and recorded. The "telephone-ears" is an apparatus by which a ship is automatically warned of submarine dangers. By the aid of the thermophile it is possible to furnish heat by means of a fine electric wire which can be woven into rugs, blankets or cushions, and all that is required is a very small electric battery. The inventor claims for it that it will do away with the necesity of ever having fires in even the coldest of weather.—London Strand.

—A fact worthy of mention at this time is the attitude of the colored race toward this affair (Sunday's lynching). A great many of the best known and respected negroes approved of the lynching, admitting freely that there must be more attention paid to the criminal negro. The respectable colored people complain that they are imposed on by the lawless class of their race because the measure of confidence which is justly their due is denied them, thus impeding their usefulness to a great extent. They would approve of more stringent laws against criminals and more active enforcement of the same.—Newbern Journal.

A serious pension scandal has developed in Colleton county, and four citizens of that county have been presented by the grand jury for indictment by the solicitor on charges of fraudulent obtaining of money from the State on claims to Confederate pensions. The sternest sort of prosecution should be pressed against these people, and if their guilt is established severe punishment should be meted out to them. The State is able to give but a small amount, comparatively speaking, to the assistance of indigent veterans of the great war, and every cent of its appropriation should be most carefully conserved to its high purpose and rigidly accounted for. Pension swindling is bad enough in any case, but particularly is it outrageous in such conditions as prevailed in the South, where the States, in their poverty, scrape together a modest sum for the relief of the men who are barred from assistance by the National Treasury.—Charleston (S. C.) Post.

—"The Japanese trust Roosevelt," says a Portsmouth dispatch. They insist, however, that the czar pay cash."—Washington Post.

TWINKLINGS.

—Mr. Jawback—Why are you not wearing your wedding ring? Mrs. Jawback—I wore it out doing housework!—Cleveland Leader.

—Citizen—"What possible excuse did you fellows have for acquitting that murderer?" Juryman—"Insanity." Citizen—"Gee! The whole twelve of you?"—Cleveland Leader.

—"Did you enjoy yourself at the seashore?" "I should say so," answered the youth with the glaring hatband. "I had a headache every morning for two weeks."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

—Bill the Brute: Thirteen's my unlucky number. Pete the Dip: Wot makes yer t'ink so? Bill: W'enever I sees twelve men in de box and one on de bench, I know I'm goin' ter take a trip over de road.—Cleveland Leader.

—"Jones would make an excellent tective. He seems to know the inner history of every family in the neighborhood." "He does. That's one of the advantages of being engaged to the operator who runs the local telephone central."—Brooklyn Life.

—Miss Kunning—Every woman should work hard for a husband—Mr. Marryat—That's what I say, but my wife's so lazy—Miss Kunning—You misunderstand me. I mean she should work hard to get a husband, but after she gets him she shouldn't have to work at all.—Philadelphia Press.

—"I suspect," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "that our new minister is a transcendentalist." "Oh," replied her hostess as she carelessly tossed her rope of pearls over the back of a chair, "do you think so? My! I'd hate to be one of them. I should think they'd fall downstairs or something, gettin' up and prowlin' around that way in their sleep."—Chicago Record-Herald.

CASTORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

The Indian never liked work but he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible so that she could do the work and let him hunt, therefore he dug papoose root for her, for that was their great remedy for female weaknesses.

Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his Favorite Prescription" skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective and protect the stomach from functional disturbance.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION is not nor ever was a "patent medicine," but it is the carefully wrought out and thoroughly tested real prescription of a real physician in a real practice.

Dr. Pierce's unparalleled success with this remedy was such that more wanted to use it than any one doctor could attend to in a private practice. This induced him to manufacture it on a sufficiently liberal scale to meet the demand.

By his own special processes, he extracts, combines and preserves the medicinal qualities of the several ingredients without the use of alcohol (using chemically pure glycerine instead), thus rendering it absolutely safe for any woman of any age and in any condition to use freely. The names of the ingredients are: Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root.

Miss May Rohrback, No. 73 Amsterdam Avenue, New York City, Treasurer of the Woman's Progressive Union, writes:

"I had headache, backache, and was very nervous; scarcely able to sleep more than two hours at a time. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and was delighted with the result. Within a week I was sleeping splendidly. Continued using the 'Favorite Prescription' for eight weeks, and then stopped, for I was perfectly well. Ever since then your medicine has been my 'Favorite Prescription,' too. I recommend it to every one."

Constipation although a little ill, begets big ones if neglected. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, August 29.—In spite of continued dry weather in Texas, and the bullish interpretation placed by many on the news of peace in the Far East, the cotton market ruled nervous and unsettled and while steady at the close showed a net decline of about 9 to 12 points. The opening was quiet and firm at a decline of 2 to 5 points on near months which were influenced by rather disappointing cables and reports that 25,000 bales had been issued on September notices while the later months were 2 to 6 points higher on continued drouth in the Southwest. Immediately following the call, covering and bull support put prices up to a shade over the highest level of yesterday, making a new high record for the movement, but offerings became heavier on the bulge, and rumors that rain was falling at some points in Texas caused weakness. The weekly bureau report at midday was considered about a stand off but was followed by a bear raid and the low point was reached in the afternoon with the active months showing a loss of about 12 to 13 points. Southern spot markets were reported unchanged to 1-4c higher. Southern bulls were credited with taking profits while Wall street appeared to be supporting the market at the decline. Sales of futures were estimated 400,000 bales.

Conviction Follows Trial

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out.

Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

Lion Coffee,

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

LION COFFEE is sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages, and reaches you as pure and clean as when it left our factory.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Buie's Creek Academy, the largest school in Eastern Carolina, of which Prof. J. A. Campbell is president, opened August 22nd with more than 200 boarding pupils, the largest opening in its history.

—Mr. John Brooks, a tenant on the farm of Mr. Philip Sowers, near Salisbury, was instantly killed by lightning Monday afternoon, during a severe thunder storm which visited that section of the county. A mule, upon which Mr. Brooks was riding, was also killed.

—Lumberton Robesonian: News has reached here of a fearful accident that befell a Mr. Sellers who lived near Mt. Elam church, Saturday. He was cutting a tree when he stepped back and the tree bore him down lengthwise, lying upon him till it could be sawed in two. In spite of the horrible crushing, the injured man lived till eleven o'clock that night.

—In the Superior Court at Fayetteville Monday afternoon, Judge Moore made an order continuing, till the next term of court, the cases against Mr. J. C. Haigh and Mr. G. G. Myrover, cashier and teller, respectively, of the Bank of Fayetteville, for alleged embezzlement of funds of the bank. Messrs. Haigh and Myrover were indicted about four months ago on an alleged shortage of about $60,000 in their accounts.

—A Goldsboro dispatch on Monday says: The jury in the Borden-Edmundson assault case, after being out only about 30 minutes, returned a verdict this afternoon convicting Mr. Borden and acquitting Mr. Edmundson. The judge has not yet rendered his decision. Much interest was manifested in the case on account of the prominence of the parties involved. It will be remembered that Edmundson shot Borden on the street here three months ago, the difficulty arising over the city election.

Newbern Journal: As to the identity of the lynchers there are many theories, but there are none who are positively known or if they are known the persons so acquainted are keeping quiet. It is said that the perpetrators were all farmers or residents of Clarks, others said that there was a good sprinkling of citizens in the mob, others that they were exclusively Pamlico countyites and others swore they were bold, bad men from Carteret county. It is not probable that they will ever be known to the public at large unless the grand jury's investigation finds them out.

—Mr. R. J. Reynolds, president of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, of Winston-Salem, when asked about the report published in The Charlotte Observer of Sunday to the effect that his company had purchased the business of the Rucker-Witten Tobacco Company, of Martinsville, the largest independent plant of the kind in the South, replied that no sale had been made. Mr. Reynolds, however, declined to state whether or not a deal was on between the two concerns. It is known here that the Martinsville firm has not been operating its plant for several weeks. The impression here is that if a trade has not been closed it will be.

—Last spring Conductor R. E. Weaver, of the Southern Railway, was arrested on the charge of kicking a negro, Samuel Bridgers, from the top of his train, a freight, for which he is now under a bond of $500, the charge being assault with intent to kill. At Durham Monday afternoon a damage suit, on account of this occurrence, was compromised, by which the boy was given $1,800, and his mother, Matilda Bridgers, $260 to cover the expense incurred on account of the injuries to her son. The boy had his leg broken by the fall he received from the top of the car, which was in motion when he was kicked off, or when he alleges that he was kicked off. The criminal action against the conductor was delayed until a settlement of the civil matter. The consent judgment was signed by Judge Ward.

—A dispatch from Asheville on Monday says: A motion was made to-day before United States Circuit Judge Pritchard, by Col. A. H. Slocomb, receiver for the Southern Saw Mills and Lumber Company, for the appointment of a receiver for the Philadelphia Construction Co., which owns a tramway and certain lumber rights in Robeson county. Col. Slocomb also asked for an injunction restraining any interference with the property of the Philadelphia Construction Company. Judge Pritchard granted a temporary injunction and set October 23 as the date to hear arguments on the motion to appoint a receiver. The receiver of the Southern Saw Mills and Lumber Company seeks to have the property and moneys of the Philadelphia Construction Company turned over to the Southern Saw Mills concern, claiming that it is part of the assets. Former Receiver Edwards, who refuses to turn over the property and the moneys, claims that the property of the Philadelphia Construction Company belonged to him personally and had nothing to do with the Southern Saw Mills and Lumber Company.

MAY SUCCEED MR. BARR.

Another Rumor That John Finlay Wallace Will Succeed Him.

(Special to the Charlotte Observer.)

Richmond, Va., August 28.—A gentleman of this city, who is in a position to have information on the subject, said yesterday that there was little or no doubt in his mind that John Findlay Wallace would become the head of the Seaboard Air Line system May 1, 1906. Mr. Barr, president of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, has a contract with the company, which will expire on that date. Mr. Wallace, when he came to this country, after resigning his position as chief engineer in charge of the Panama Canal construction, said that he had been offered a $60,000 place in the United States. He has accepted a position with George Westinghouse, the head of the great Westinghouse Company. It is not thought he receives a salary nearly approaching $60,000. Mr. Westinghouse represents Thomas R. Ryne, as one of the Equitable trustees. He is close to Mr. Ryan in several ways. It is said that Mr. Ryan owns or controls the Seaboard. It is said to be his determination to put Mr. Wallace in control when President Barr's time expires next May. Mr. Wallace resided in Virginia some years ago as superintendent of the Mathieson Alkali Works, at Saltville, Smyth county.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles—A Wilmington Citizen Shows How to Cure Them.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Wilmington people testify to permanent cures.

E. Poezolt, merchant tailor, of Eight South Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism and her ankles would be all pulled up every morning so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and taking them she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankle and from the great relief she obtained we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A Touching Story

is the saving from death, of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyler, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious Throat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At R. R. Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months, I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief and in a short time I was entirely " Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store; price 50c.

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Wednesday Morning, August 30.

ROOSEVELT WAS HONORED.

Inter-Parliamentary Congress Made Notable Demonstration at Brussels.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Brussels, August 28.—The opening of the Inter-Parliamentary Congress in the National Palace here to-day was the occasion for a notable demonstration in behalf of President Roosevelt and the success of the peace conference at Portsmouth. The welcoming address delivered by Minister of State Beernaert aroused a storm of applause when he referred to President Roosevelt's two conspcuous movements in behalf of peace in first calling a meeting the The Hague Conference and, secondly, in bringing together the plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan. The congress adopted amid enthusiasm resolutions of thanks to President Roosevelt and the secretary was instructed to cable a message of appreciation to President Roosevelt.

The congress afterward discussed the American proposition for a model arbitration treaty. Congress Richard Bartholdt, of Missouri, spoke in favor of it.

Mr. Bartholdt also presented the report in behalf of the United States.

King Leopold received the delegates to the congress this afternoon. He conversed with each of the American members, expressing his admiration for the United States and saying that he kept President Roosevelt's photograph bearing his signature on his desk in his study.

At the afternoon session the congress further discussed the American proposition for a model arbitration and a permanent congress of the nations. Among those speaking in support of the latter proposition, was Congressman Bartholdt.

Congressman James L. Slayden, of Texas, spoke in favor of both propositions.

The congress resolved to refer the treaty proposition to a committee with instructions to report within three months.

THE EQUITABLE SOCIETY.

Strong as Bank of England—Federal Supervision Favored.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Seattle, Wash., August 28.—Thomas F. Ryan. the financier, of New York, who recently acquired the controlling interest of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York, in an interview here to-day with the Associated Press said:

"My purchase of the control of the stock and inducing Mr. Morton to take the presidency was only a public duty which any number of other men would have readily performed, had they been aware of the consequences of a continuation of the dissensions among the old officers and directors. I happened from my relations to some of the parties engaged in the conflict, to have a better view of the situation than some of the others. That was all.

"There is not the slightest doubt about the strength of the Equitable. It is as sound as the Bank of England. It will hereafter be run as an insurance company pure and simple, with an eye single to the welfare of its policy holders. As to the investigation by the New York Legislature, nothing could be better for the policy holders of the Equitable. Mr. Morton will afford the committee every facility and will aid in every way to the end that a full and thorough investigation shall be made. If anybody connected with the company has been guilty of wrongdoing he should suffer and if anybody has anything in his possession belonging to the company he must give it back.

"The Federal Government should have practically the same supervision of life insurance companies as it has over national banks. The officers and managers of these companies have in their keeping a trust of the most sacred character and they should not object to the best interests of their business. I am quite sure that President Roosevelt has given this question much thought and I hope he will express his opinions to Congress in his vigorous and straightforward way."

SCHOONER WAS WRECKED.

Crew of Vessel Which Sailed from Georgetown Missing.

By Wire to The Morning Star

New York, August 29.—When the HamburgAmerican Atlas line steamer Sarnia, from the West Indies, reached here to-night, Captain Wintzer. of that vessel, reported that on Monday last he passed the schooner Charles A. Witler, of Baltimore, abandoned and waterlogged. The derelict was in latitude 74 west, or about 75 miles northeast by east from Cape Hatteras. Nothing has been heard of the crew of the schooner. In command of Captain Brownell the vessel sailed from Georgetown, August 24 bound to Baltimore. It is thought probable that the schooner was caught in the same West Indian storm which sunk the steamer Peconic. The Witler was a new vessel, being less than a year old. She registered 181 tons and was owned by William A. Woodall and Company of Baltimore.

CHINESE BOYCOTT PROGRESS.

At Pekin it Overshadows Peace Negotiations.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Pekin, August 29.—The American boycott almost overshadows the peace negotiations as a topic of interest in China. Accounts reaching Pekin from trading centers indicate that the movement attained its greatest strengh early in August and since then has been decreasing. Nowhere except in Shanghai has American business received a serious blow. The best informed foreigners believe that the boycott has passed its climax and will gradually subside; that the cessation of orders for American goods is merely temporary, and that a decrease of orders now will result in a corresponding increase later in the year.

In New England and the South manufacturers complain of inability to secure sufficient operatives, being able to operate only about 75 or 80 per cent. of their machinery. The demand exceeds the supply and the market is accordingly strengthened.

THE CRUEL WAR IS AT AN END

Russians and Japanese Agree On Basis of Treaty of Peace

JAPAN'S NOBLE CONCESSION

Gave Up Demand for Indemnity But Gets Half of Sakhalin and Russia's Manchurian Railroad—Honors Are Roosevelt's.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Portsmouth, August, 29.—The long and bloody war between Japan and Russia is ended.

The terms of peace were settled by Mr. Witte and Baron Komura at the session of the conference this morning, and this afternoon preliminary arbe completed by the end of the week. concluded and the actual work of framing the "Treaty of Portsmouth" was by mutual agreement turned over to Mr. DeMartens, Russia's great international lawyer, and Mr. Dennison, who for twenty-five years has acted as the legal advisor of the Japanese foreign office. The treaty is expected to be completed by the end of the wek.

This happy conclusion of the conference, which a week ago would have been ship-wrecked had it not been for the heroic intercession of President Roosevelt, was sudden and dramatic. For the sake of peace Japan, with the magnanimity of a victor, at the last moment yielded everything still in issue. Russia refused to budge from the ultimatum Emperor Nicholas had given to President Roosevelt through Ambassador Meyer. No indemnity under any guise, but an agreement to divide Sakhalin and reimburse for the maintenance of the Russian prisoners were his last words. They had been repeated, reiterated in Mr. Witte's instructions and in the form of a written reply to the Japanese compromise proposal of last Wednesday they were delivered to Baron Komura this morning.

Mr. Witte went to the conference declaring he was powerless to change the dot of an I or the cross of a T in his instructions. Emperor Nicholas' word had been given not only to him but to President Roosevelt, the head of a foreign State.

When Baron Komura, therefore, first offered the new basis of compromise outlined in the Associated Press dispatches last night (the complete renunciation of indemnity, coupled with a proposition for the redemption of Sakhalin at a price to be fixed by a mixed tribunal consisting of representatives of the neutral powers, in fact, if not in words, the solution offered by President Roosevelt) Mr. Witte again returned a non possumus. It was what Mr. Witte termed in his interview with the Associated Press the "psychological moment."

Mr. Witte did not flinch. He expected a rupture and as he expressed it afterward he was stunned by what happened. Baron Komura gave way on all the disputed points. With the prescience that has enabled the Japanese to guage the mental processes of their adversaries on the field of battle and upon the sea, they had realized in advance that peace could be obtained in no other way. They had warned their government. President Roosevelt had also, it is believed, advised Japan that it was better to meet the Russian position than to take the responsibility of continuing the war for the purpose of collecting tribute. Mikado at the session of the cabinet and elder statesmen yesterday had sanctioned the final concession. When Baron Komura yielded, the rest was mere child's play.

Articles 10 and 11 (interned warships and the limitation of Russia's sea power in the Far East) were withdrawn. Japan agreed that only that portion of the Chinese Eastern Railroad south of Chantufu, the position occupied by Oyama, should be ceded to Japan. Both sides, once the deadlock was broken, wanted a "just and lasting" peace, and in that spirit it was decided to practically neutralize Sakhalin, each country binding itself not to fortify its half of the island, and Japan assuming an obligation not to fortify the La Perouse strait between Sakhalin and Hokkaido which would bar Russia's commercial route to the Pacific.

The plenipotenriaries went further. They decided to add a new clause in the nature of a broad provision for mutual commercial privileges, by which each country will secure for the other the benefit of the "most favored nation" clause, and the "open door."

The new treaty, therefore, will be a wonderfully friendly document, of character almost to raise the suspicion that the two countries have not negotiated peace but have concluded the basis of a future alliance. There is, however, no evidence or rumor that any secret clauses are to be appended to the present treaty.

Before leaving the conference building felicitations were exchanged with the president at Oyster Bay. Both Baron Komura and Mr. Witte telegraphed. The former confined himself to apprising Mr. Roosevelt of the conditions upon which peace had been concluded. Mr. Witte frankly laid his tribute at the president's door. In his message he said:

"History will ascribe to you the glory," and added the expression of Russia's hearty appreciation of the president's "generous initiative."

Mr. Roosevelt replied with words of thanks and congratulation.

Then began the jubilation. Mr. Witte and Baron DeRosen returned to the hotel for luncheon. The Japanese had remained at the conference hall to lunch with Mr. Peirce. The news that peace had been concluded had preceded the Russian plenipotentiaries and such scenes of wild rejoicing have never before been witnessed in the State of New Hampshire as greeted them upon their arrival at the hotel. Mr. Witte, dazed at the sudden and happy termination of the conference, was fairly overpowered by the tremendous ovation he received. He could only express his gratitude by shaking the hands of everybody, and in response to the volley of questions fired at him as to the terms, murmur: "We pay not a kopeck and we get half of Sakhalin."

Later in his room, when he had partially recovered himself, he declared that he could not have dreamed of such a victory—for that he regards it as a diplomatic triumph of the first magnitude, he makes no attempt to conceal. And that is the general verdict here to-night. The Russians are overjoyed at the result.

"We have had our Liao Yangs and Mukdens on land," they say," and our Tsuhimas on sea, but the Japanese have had their Portsmouth."

Although Mr. Witte is not a diplomatist they declare that he has outmanoeuvred the Japanese, yielding one by one to the conditions until he forced them into a corner on the main issue of indemnity and left them no escape except surrender or to convert the war into a war to collect tribute. The Russians declared diplomatically the Japanese made their collosal blunder when they agred to consider the conditions seriatim.

The Japanese correspondents, though they said little, plainly showed their dissatisfaction with the terms during the afternoon. They stood aloof silent in the midst of the general jubulation, for as the afternoon advanced the air was filled with the sounds of rejoicing. Bells were ringing in Portsmouth and New Castle and the fleet in the harbor was adding to the din with their sirens and bells. One of the Japanese, however, gave the true note when he remarked:

"Tell me that the Mikado has approved it and I shall be satisfied." In that sentence was compressed the Spartan heroism of the Japanese nation and later when Mr. Sato issued the official explanation of the reasons that moved the Japanese plenipotentiaries and it showed that the Emperor had approved, there was a perceptible change in the feelings of the Japanese. Considerable disappointment, however, continued to be manifested. Baron Komura following the rule he has set himself, declined to make any statement and Mr. Takahira would only say when asked by the Associated Press to make a statement:

"For the sake of humanity and civilization, and as we believe in the interest of both countries and the world, we have made peace."

Witte Considers It Triumph.

A scene of the greatest excitement folowed the receipt of the news in the lobbies of the Hotel Wentworth. The official bulletin was telephoned from the conference room at the navy yard by Mr. Sato and like an electric thrill flooded through the room. There were screams of joy. Men threw their hats aloft, women actually wept. Then there was a rush for the telegraph offices and in an instant the news was speeding to the remotest corners of the earth.

Mr. Witte accompanied by Baron de Rosen came to the hotel for luncheon. There was a wonderful demonstration upon their arrival. A great crowd had collected under the portecochere of the annex where the Russians are quartered and when their automobile drew up, the air was torn with frantic cheers. Hats were thrown aloft. Mr. Witte, as he stepped out of the motor car, seemed quite overcome. Too full for utterance he could only grasp and shake the hands that were extended to him. Baron Rosen also was squally moved and received the congratulations of the crowd in silence. For about five minutes the two plenipotentiaries were kept upon the perch listening to the incoherent praises of the hotel guests.

"Do you pay indemnity?" was the universal interrogation.

"Pas un sou" (not a cent) was Mr. Witte's response.

Forcing his way to the door, Mr. Witte encountered the members of the Russian mission who rushed forward to shake his hand. Briefly in Russian he gave them the joyful tidings. Then as he started up the stairs, the newspaper correspondents clamored for information.

"What have you done? How is it settled?" they cried.

"We pay not a kopeck of indemnity," he replied as he turned at the landing half way up the stairs. "We got half of Sakhalin. That is the agrement in a nut shell."

The Associated Press correspondent accompanied Mr. Witte to his room. He had been quite overcome by the great ovation he had received and the intense strain he had been under. He threw himself into his arm chair and after a few minutes to "pull himself together" he began to speak, slowly and deliberately—almost as if he were talking to himself.

"It seems incredible," he said, "I do not believe any other man in my place would have dared to hope for the possibility of peace on the conditions to which we have just agreed. From all sides, from President Roosevelt down to my own friends in Russia, I received up to the last moment, even this morning, urgent representations that something should be paid to Japan."

At this point Mr. Witte, who was still laboring under excitement, almost lost control of himself. He paused a moment. Then he went on:

"The Japanese wanted to take our interned ships, and I have not consented. The Japanese wanted to limit our naval power in the Far East, and I have not consented. The Japanese wanter war indemnity or reimbursement of the cost of the war; aye, demanded it, and I have not consented. The Japanese wanted the Chinese Eastern railway South of Harbin but I gave them only the railroad in the possession of their troops south of of Chantufu.

The Japanese wanted the Island of Sakhalin and I refused it, agreeing, however, at the last moment to cede the southern half and then only because I was commanded by my sovereign to yield and obeyed. Not only do we not pay so much as a kopeck, but we obtain half of Sakhalin, now in their possession. At this morning's meeting I presented my written proposition which was the Russian ultimatum. It was accepted by the Japanese. I was amazed. Until I was in the conference room I did not think what would happen. I could not anticipate such a great and happy issue. It was a physchological crisis. I had made up my mind not to strike out a letter of the ultimatum I submitted. So far as I was concerned it was ended. But I could not tell how it would work on the Japanese mind. It was a complete victory for us."

Mr. Witte continuing his conversation said that he would like to explain the visit of Mr. Vanderlip last night in order to prevent false statements and misrepresentation regarding it.

"Mr. Vanderlip," he said, "came to se me not only to speak of the situation in general but also of money matters and of the possibility of Russia floating a loan in the United States. I told him two things: If Russia must continue the war there is at the command of the treasury a reserve fund of one million roubles in gold which I accummulated when I was a minister of finance. That fund is to protect paper issues but could be used and we would not be obliged to borrow at unacceptable rates. If I make peace, I told him from every source in America, in France, in Germany and in England would come a flood of offers of money. Therefore, if peace comes it would become only a question of whether Mr. Vanderlip's offers were preferrable to others."

Roosevelt Congratulated.

Oyster Bay, August 29.—In his library at Sagamore Hill, President Roosevelt, shortly before 1 o'clock this afternoon received the announcemen that the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries at Portsmouth had reached an agrement and would proceed at once to conclude the terms of a treaty of peace. The news came to him from the Associated Press in the form of a bulletin.

Official confirmation of the historic tidings reached the president at 2:20 o'clock in a cipher dispatch from Portsmouth. By authority and at the request of Baron Komura, the chief envoy of Japan, the dispatch stated:

"The plenipotentiaries of Japan have withdrawn their claim for reimbursement of war expenses, and an agreement has been reached as to the partition of the Island of Sakhalin. All main points have been definitely settled. The plenipotentiaries will now proceed with discussion of details."

While the president did not seek to conceal his profound gratification that the conference has reached an agreement, he said he felt obliged, in the circumstances, to refrain from any formal expression regarding the work accomplished until he should have been informed fully as to the details. It can be said, however, that he feels that the successful issue of the conference is a great triumph for humanity and civilization. Such public expression as he may make regarding the work of the conference will be announced after he shall have had opportunity carefully to consider it.

At the conclusion of their labors in the conference the plenipotentiaries of both Russia and Japan will be received by President Roosevelt, either at Sagamore Hill or at the White House.

Throughout the late afternoon and evening messages of congratulation by the score poured in upon the president from people both in America and Europe. The great part he has played in bringing about the success of the conference and in promoting the interests of civilization is recognized throughout the world, as is indicated by the cordiality of wide range covered by the congratulatory dispatches. None of these messages was made public.

NORTH CAROLINA CROPS.

Too Much Rain Has Injured Cotton Corn and Fruit.

Raleigh, N. C., August 29.—The North Carolina department of the United States Weather Bureau makes the following report for the week ending Monday, August 28:

"In general the weather has been too wet for the best growth of crops; the week has been cloudy and in many places rain has fallen every day. Cotton has been injured to a considerable extent by the rains, bottom land corn has been drowned and the land badly washed. On the other hand the rain and sunshine in many places proved very beneficial to most crops, especially corn, but as many farmers still had their hay and fodden to cut and cure, the week was in that respect unfavorable. The average temperature of the week for the State was only about one degree below the average. In many places the farmers are ready to plow for wheat, and while a great deal of land has been broken, it has been too wet for plowing to become general.

It has been too wet for cotton. In many sections it is making too much weed; and not fruiting well. It is opening generally throughout the State, and picking is in progress in many sections but more common in the east and central districts. In some cases opening has been caused by rust and thus it is somewhat premature. A few report bolls rotting near the ground, and also the cotton yellowing.

While tobacco cutting and curing have been in progress for some time, there is some that is just about ripe in the western district. The crop will not be quite an average in most places, while some report only a one-half crop. Firing and specking have been reported in some portions of the central and western districts. In all districts cutting and curing are in progress. The cures are reported as fair, color good but leaf somewhat lacking in body.

A great deal of lowland corn was damaged by the rains; while many report an improvement in the corn crop during the past week, others report too much weed and not earing well. Corn, both early and late, on uplands will do fairly well although the crop is not as good as was anticipated.

Most of the minor crops are doing well. Turnip planting is still in progress, some have come up, and a good yield is expected. White and sweet potatoes, buckwheat, cow peas, watermelons are all doing well. In general the fruit crop is a failure, the fruit rotting and falling to the ground; but a few report apples and peaches plentiful. Fodder and hay have been greatly injured by the rains in all parts of the State. Fodder stripping is under way in all sections, and in places there is a great deal of hay uncut, the weather being very unfavorable."

CANTON-HANKOW RAILROAD.

China Cancels Rights But Pays J. P. Morgan $6,750,000.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, August 29.—As the result of the conference between the president and J. P. Morgan at Oyster Bay yesterday, the Chinese Development Company held a meeting to-day and ratified the sale of the Hankow Railroad back to China. It may be said that the plan was arranged at the meeting between the Presiden and Mr. Morgan and is satisfactory to both of them. The development company owned, besides the railroad, already built, a concession of right to extend it 800 miles into the interior of China. The portion already in existence between Canton and Hankow was 28 miles long. King Leopold of Belgium, one of the largest stockholders of the company, is said to have opposed the sale but Mr. Mrgan was reported to favor it.

Oyster Bay, L. I., 29—It was announced here by President Roosevelt this afternoon that the Empire of China had cancelled the rights and concessions of the Canton-Hankow Railroad, operating between Canton and Hankow, in China and that, as an indemnity, the Chinese Government would pay to the owners of the road, the American China Development Company, the sum of $6,750,000.

YELLOW FEVER IN PENSACOLA

Three Greeks Have Disease—Not Known How They Contracted It

NATCHEZ HAS NINE CASES

Parish Near New Orleans Badly Infected—Record in New Orleans to Date 1,832 Cases and 267 Deaths—The Outlook.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Pensacola, August 29.—Dr. Joseph Y. Porter, State health officer, has issued a card to the public in which he says that three Greeks with symptoms of yellow fever have been found in Pensacola. The cases were discovered by Dr. Warren E. Anderson, agent here of the State Board of Health and Dr. Porter confirms Dr. Anderson's diagnoses of the cases.

It is not known how these men took the disease as it is asserted by those who are supposed to know that neither of them has been out of the city for two months or more. Very little can be learned from them as they speak English poorly and are reticent. It has been ascertained, however, that one of them was taken sick last Thursday and the other two last Friday. They are now up and walking about as their attacks were mild.

Arrangements are being perfected by which all the buildings in the two squares in which the cases have been found shall be screened and fumigated. A bi-daily medical inspection will be made of all the persons living in this territory and if any other cases develop they will be cared for in screened rooms. The railroads and water transportation companies have been directed to sell tickets only to persons authorized by State health authorities and no one living within one hundred feet of the square where the cases are located will be permitted to go elsewhere in the State. The rstricted territory has been placed under police guard and is within a sanitary cordon.

Situation in New Orleans.

New Orleans, August 29.—The following is the official report of the yellow fever situation to 6 P. M. today:

New cases, 45; total cases to date, 1,832.

Deaths, 7; total deaths to date, 267.

New foci, 9; total foci, 429.

Cases remaining under treatment, 174.

Owing to the fact that the total number of foci which have been printed from day to day is misleading, and that the number of cases reported under treatment is inaccurate, on account of a defect in the formulae which they were figured. both figures hereafter will be dropped.

Surgeon White has asked those who conduct private schools and the priests in charge of parochial schools to postpone the opening until October, as has been done by the directors of the public schools.

Twenty-five tents will be shipped by the marine ho pital service to Lake Providence to enable the authorities there to isolate the negro population, among whom the disease seems to have gained a foothold. The report from there is three new cases.

Fever in the Country.

The most important development of the yellow fever situation to-day was the report of Dr. C. Milo Brady who had been sent by the State Board of Health on a tour of inspection of the bayous and lakes in Jefferson parish where there are many settlements of fishermen in constant communication with New Orleans. Dr. Brady made the trip with Dr. Shandey, of North Dakota, in a launch loaned by the latter. Without completing the investigation they turned up 35 cases of yellow fever mostly along Bayou, Barataria, and learned that deaths had occurred and found much suffering. After Dr. Brady had made his report the State Board of Health decided to organize immediately a relief party consisting of a physician and two nurses. A large supply of medicines and provisions also will be forwarded and the State Board will keep in constant touch with the situation in the effort to control the sickness. All the cases are in Jefferson parish.

One of the leading New York insurance companies, recently asked its local representative to give the nationality of those who have succumbed to the fever in New Orleans. The report has been completed and a copy given to Dr. White. It shows the following deaths: Italians, 168; French, 33; German, 25; Russian, 4; Greek, 1; American, 25; negroes, 3. Total 259.

Yellow Fever at Natchez.

Natchez, Miss., August 29.—Dr. Eugent Wasdin of the Marine Hospital Service, arrived here today and after a careful study of fourteen patients pronounced nine yellow fever and five suspicious. Seven of the pronounced cases are negroes and all are within a radius of a few blocks in the city.

GOVERNMENT CROP REPORT.

Condition of Cotton Not Generally Favorable—Tobacco Not Promising.

Washington, August 29.—The Weather Bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions say:

"In some northeastern counties of Texas, in Arkansas, and in portions of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia, improvement in the condition of cotton is indicated, and in Oklahoma and Indian Territories and Missouri, the crop is in fair to good condition. Elsewhere cotton has not made favorable progress. Complaints of shedding are received from every State, of rust from the eastern districts of premature opening from Texas, Arkansas, and North Carolina, and of rotting of bolls in South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi. The bolls are opening rapidly generally throughout the belt and picking is in progress in all but the northerly districts.

Tobacco has suffered from wet weather in portions of Kentucky and in Virginia and Maryland, but in the first mentioned State has generally made good progress. A good crop is promised in Pennsylvania, New York and New England. Cutting is general.

More favorable reports respecting apples are received from Maryland and Virginia but elsewhere the outlook for this crop continues poor.

Peculiar Disappearance.

J. D. Runyan, of Butlerville, O., laid the peculiar disappearnce of his painful symptoms, of indigestion and biliousness, to Dr. King's New Life Pills. He says: "They are a perfect remedy, for dizziness, sour stomach, headache, constipation, etc." Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store, price 25c. **
